LET TEACHERS DO THE TEACHING

Colored Citizens Protest Against Appointment of Preachers.

To the Editor of Telegram:

We have learned to our regret that several of our clergy have made application for positions as principal of our city graded schools. The representative colored men of Greensboro do not want ministers in our schools. Our colleges are turning out competent teachers yearly who have received special training along that line and who can really do our schools more good. The colored ministry very often call our attention to following or imitating the white man in whatever they do. Now we ask that class of our clergy who think they can afford to teach in our city schools leave off the preparation for their congregation and pastoral visits that will doubtless consume eight days of the week, to follow the example of our white ministry in the city.

They say it is impossible for them to find time for any work aside from preparation and pastoral work. It takes all their time for the ministry. The colored people need more Christian instruction than can be given. They don't read as other races, hence the great need for pastoral visits and general church work. If we had the above work done as it should be, and as it could be, if our preachers who are trying to get in our schools would content themselves in their pulpits, where they are most needed, there would not be so many crimes committed by our people.

We therefore beg our school board not to cheat the pulpit of our race. We need its work.

Many Citizens.

New Reaper and Binder.

A few days ago we spoke of the splendid crop of wheat on Sample Brown's model farm, near town. Mr. Brown has now purchased an Osborne Columbia reaper and binder from the Greensboro Hardware company. The machine is today being set up and put in running ordered by a machinist sent here from the factory.

Mr. Brown believes in doing first-class work in whatever he undertakes. He believes in equipping his farm with first-class implements the same as he does in putting first-class salesman in his store and putting first-class goods on his counters and shelves.

OREGON TO JOIN SCHLEY.

Alger Asks For Another Fifty Million Appropriation.

TROOPS TRY TO LYNCH A NEGRO

Reports to the morning papers show that the details as given in The Telegram's despatches from Port-au-Prince yesterday were substantially correct. The Marblehead ran under the guns of Morro and making sure that the squadron of Cervera was in the harbor returned and reported the fact to the American fleet which then moved up and opened fire on the forts and the cruiser Cristobal Colon which was visible within the harbor. The American ships made no effort to enter the harbor but led by the Massachusetts to which Schley had transferred his flag circled outside where there was room to maneuvre pouring in a deadly fire on the forts and the Cristobal Colon. The effect of the large calibre shells on Morro Castle was plainly visible, each knocking great holes in the wall dismounting guns and killing the gunners. The shore batteries sufferred equally. None of the American ships was struck though several shells burst over the Iowa. The battle lasted about an hour. The Colon was fired by shells from the Iowa but the flames were quickly extinguished. It is expected that the attack will be renewed and that the land forces of the insurgents will co-operate. About 6,000 Spanish soldiers are available for the defense of Santiago.

RUN ON BANK OF SPAIN.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Madrid, June 2—Another big run on the bank of Spain began this morning.

SHIFTING THE TROOPS.

Chickamauga, June 2—The Third and 69th regiments of New York volunteers arrived this morning. The Third Pennsylvania, Fifth Maryland and First Illinois regiments left for Tampa.

BIT OF SPANISH HUMOR.

Madrid, June 2—A despatch from Havana to the Imparcial states that the autonomist cabinet has becided to suspend the duties on imported provisions and to prohibit the export of sugar to America altogether.

THE POWER OF HABIT.

New York, June 2—A special to the Evening Journal from Chickamauga says that William Ruby a negro private in a volunteer regiment attempted several times to cross the guard lines of the Second regiment Kentucky volunteers. When stopped he became abusive. The Kentuckians threw a noose around his neck and were dragging him to the nearest tree when Colonel Gaither interfered. The Kentuckians had previously been greatly harrassed by the persistent insolence of the negroes.

TROUBLE OVER RESTORMEL.

Key West, June 2—The unloading of the coal of the captured British ship Restormel this morning was watched with much interest. Commodore Remy decided yesterday to seize the cargo without waiting for a decision of the prize court. The captain of the Restormel declared that he would scuttle the ship before he would allow premature seizure. It was found on yesterday that the hoisting cranes of the ship were broken and it is now suspected that there are arms under the coal.

FOREIGN VESSEL REGISTERED.

Washington, June 2—The senate this afternoon passed a bill granting American registry to the Pacific mail steamship, China, for the purpose of conveying American troops to Manila. The government was compelled to take this course because of the exhorbitant demands of American owners of Pacific steamers.

GRANNY LONG'S LECTURE.

Tampa, June 2, (Censored)—Washington officials say that reports of the departure of expeditions hence for Cuba are harmful as well as premature, causing unnecessary agitation in the north and misleading the public mind. The exact state of things here cannot of course be divulged but no good purpose is served by the publication of these premature reports.

PRODUCT OF THE CENSOR.

New York. June 2—The foregoing despatch from Tampa is practically a product of the censor. A long descriptive story of the camp life and hardships of the volunteers which followed had been plainly blue penciled by the censor in a wholesale way. It is supposed that this was intended to deceive Spanish spies.

BUTLER RAISED A DISCUSSION.

Washington, June 2—Senator Butler of North Carolina addressed the senate on the war revenue bill today. He said that republicans had been unduly influenced to support the bond proposition. This evoked a lengthy discussion as to the grounds of the assertion which was without any important result.

HELP FOR SCHLEY.

Kingston, June 2—Advices received from Port Antonio state that the navy department has notified Commodore Schley that the Oregon, New York and two colliers have been sent to Santiago de Cuba.

APPROPRIATION ASKED FOR.

Washington, June 2—Secretary Alger this morning asked for an appropriation of fifty-three millions of dollars for the equipment and maintenance for the remainder of the year for the second call of volunteers.

Combine the Companies.

Simpson Schenck informs us that his recruiting office is still open and recruits are being received steadily though not rapidly. He has now about thirty men ready to move on short notice. Albright also has a number upon whom he can depend. If an outsider may be permitted to say so there is no reason apparent why the two squads should not be combined into one company. If the attempt continues to raise two companies the only result will be that no company at all will be raised in time to get in under the call. There are now sixty applications to raise companies on file with the adjutant general. It will be a case of first come first accepted and delay means that both of the companies recruiting here at present will be shut out before they can secure their complement.

Broke the Record.

It always gives the Telegram peculiar pleasure to note the success abroad of North Carolinians and especially of Greensboro boys. Rufus Weaver, a Greensboro boy, has broken the record at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky. Entering that institution two years ago he takes his degree of Master of Theology today, the first time in its history that this feat has been accomplished. During the summer he will occupy the pulpit of one of the leading churches in Kentucky and will remain at the Seminary another year for his doctor's degree. The Telegram felicitates Mr. Weaver upon his success—one based strictly on merit.

Didn't Live to See It.

It is understood that the meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions, now being held in this city, was appointed for this city mainly for the purpose of giving Aunt Fanny Bumpass an opportunity of attending the meeting. She was noted for her piety and zeal, was a member of the Board of missions but had never been able to attend its meetings. She was very anxious to do so and this session was appointed for her home city. Just a few weeks ago, however, she was summoned up higher, and the board will no doubt adopt suitable resolutions to her memory.

Convict Captured.

Yesterday evening about 4 o'clock a telegram was received by Chief of Police Rees from the chief of police at Augusta, Georgia, telling him to arrest Mary Davenport an escaped convict from Augusta. The Telegram was given to officer Weatherly who in one hour traced the woman to Mr. Royster on church street where she had hired as a cook. When arrested she had $15 dollars in gold and $3 in bills. She says she cut a woman in Augusta, Georgia and supposed she had died.

Knocked Down by Hail.

Oxford, N. C., June 1—At the county almshouse near Oxford the storm was very severe. Mr. Buchanan, superintendent of the home for the aged and infirm, was knocked down by a hailstone and remained unconscious for a time.

In the two-story residence of Mr. Sam Knott, about two miles south of Oxford, every window pane was broken and considerable damage done to vegetables, fruits and growing crops. The wheat crops near Dexter, east of Oxford, were destroyed.

At Dabney also the storm did much damage to crops, vegetables and fruits. The hailstones in many places measured from three to four inches in thickness.—News-Observer.

SANTIAGO EXPEDITION GONE

Troops Left Tampa on Transports Yesterday.

TERMS OF FOREIGN INTERVENTION

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, June 2—It transpired this morning that the first part of the expedition to Santiago de Cuba left Tampa on board the transports yesterday. It is believed that they are now lying at Key West awaiting the second section which is expected to follow immediately.

The first detachment consisted of a battalion of engineers with batteries of siege guns to be used in occupying the high hills around the harbor of Santiago from which they will shell the squadron of the enemy lying in the harbor and force Cervera to fight Schley or surrender. Field trains and a few companies of infantrymen also accompanied the expedition. That the division will wait for the second section is inferential and it may proceed directly to Santiago relying upon Schley to protect the troops while landing.

RETREAT WITHOUT FIRING.

Key West, June 2—A dispatch boat which has just arrived here reports that the Spaniards continue their work of building defences at Cardenas. They are busy every moment when unmolested.

Fifteen thousand soldiers are assisted by three Spanish gunboats equipped with small cannon. The gunboat Leyden attacked the Spanish gunboats yesterday and the Spaniards retreated without firing.

ADVISED TO SEEK PEACE.

Madrid, June 2—Epoca in an extra this morning announces that the American fleet at Santiago de Cuba has been repulsed with heavy losses. Senator Mercoatu has advised Spain to seek an honorable peace.

AS THEY NOW SEE IT.

London, June 2—Rumors to the contrary notwithstanding it is now generally understood in the courts of Europe that it is useless to attempt to intervene at this time in the American-Spanish war unless empowered to promise immediate evacuation of Cuba by the Spaniards. Spain is being gradually brought to see that all efforts to obtain even peaceable assistance otherwise will be invariably fruitless.

BRAND OF FRENCH NEUTRALITY.

Paris, June 2—It is learned on good authority that large quantities of arms and ammunition are being smuggled across the Pyrenees into Spain. Many French and Belgian firms are engaged in this contraband trade. The French authorities are winking at it.

Anglo-American Union.

London, May 31—Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, writing to an American on the subject of his recent speech at Birmingham, in which he advocated an Anglo-American alliance, says:

"I do not expect Rome to be built in a day, although I am confident that the trend of opinion in the United States is very strongly in favor of a closer union with Great Britain. I do not think that any minority in the States will be able to resist it.

Brilliant Spanish "Victory."

Madrid, June 1, 7 p. m.—In the senate today Count Casa Valencia asked if "the news of the American repulse at Santiago de Cuba was official."

The minister of marine, Captain Aunon, replied affirmatively, adding:

"The news is a good auguary for further victory, which the courage and high merit of our sailors give reason to hope for."

The senate then unanimously "noted with satisfaction the brilliant victory of the Spanish fleet."

Urging Tom Settle.

Washington, June 1—The friends of ex-Congressman Tom Settle are urging the president to appoint him a brigadier general in the volunteer army. It will be a surprise should Mr. Settle be offered a good position in the volunteer army.

Fifteen convicts overpowered the guards and escaped from the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, yesterday. They were all outlaws from the Indian Territory and were serving long terms for counterfeiting and highway robbery.

A WRECK THIS MORNING.

Freight Train Derailed at Jamestown by Broken Wheel.

HIGH POINT, N. C., June 2, '98.

Through freight train No. 71, southbound, was wrecked at Jamestown this morning. A broken wheel threw six cars from the track and tumbled them in the ditch. Fortunately no one was hurt. There were thirty-six cars in the train and six of them are a total wreck. The track is badly torn up for eighty or a hundred feet.

A wrecking train was immediately sent out from Greensboro to clear the track. Passenger trains were held several hours before the wreckage could be cleared.

The freight cars are a total loss, we are informed, being smashed into splinters. Molasses, bananas, peanuts, candies, and in fact many and varied kinds of goods were scattered to the four winds (or as many winds as were blowing at the time) and most of this will be a total loss.

The conductor of the train was struck in the back with a bucket of coal when the crash came and was badly frightened but not hurt.

Mr. A. B. Smith, who has been very sick for several months, died last night at 7:30 o'clock at his home. More details will be given tomorrow.

HER BITTEREST HUMILIATION.

To normally constituted people Spain's bitterest humiliation is not the innocent blood she has shed, not her poverty nor her weakness, but her lack of that of which she prates most—honor. The fact is there is not an intelligent man in all the world who accepts the most solemn assurances of her highest officials as true until they have been verified from some other quarter. To say that anything emanates from a Spanish source is to say that it must be accepted with a wide margin of allowance. Nor is this confined to matters where concealment is a necessary precaution of state policy. The Spaniard is a uniform and deliberate falsifier. His most solemn promises and his statements in the most immaterial matters are alike characterized by wide divergence from the truth. If the war or navy department of this country was to issue a bulletin stating that the fortifications of Havana had been reduced, the Spanish flag hauled down and a victorious American army in possession of Havana and in a few days it should appear that the only foundation for it all was a few shots exchanged with the Santa Clara batteries, every American would blush for shame and the political party whose representatives were responsible for such a humiliation would not regain its prestige for a quarter of a century. Yet such things are done almost daily in Spain and are accepted as a matter of course. It does not explain or excuse this to say that it is done to appease the populace. The official despatches of Weyler and Blanco to the ministers of the crown have been as grossly false as the accounts of fake victories given out to the press by the cabinet. So far as we know history furnishes no parallel to this nation of liars.

In as much as the first reports that went out with regard to Cabarrus' day of tragedy were in some particulars inaccurate and misleading leaving the world open to deplore the lynching of Joe Kizer and Tom Johnston as a hasty and injudicious act, we feel that it is but due to make a few further statements in this connection.—Concord Standard.

It was not a question of being "hasty and injudicious" but of being right or wrong and while it is only natural that the Standard should give the palliating circumstances it is too decent a paper to defend lynching even at home and we are sorry to see it take that tack.

It is somewhat strange that the government at Washington should be dependent on press agencies for its information when three or four of the navy's swiftest despatch boats are at Santiago and a cable office within six hours run. Perhaps Schley has a fancy to finish the job in his own way.

They who are puzzled at England's sudden display of cordiality to this country should pause to let in a flood of light. The Hon. Richard Croker is in England.

President McKinley's war policy reminds one of the mother who told her little son that he could go swimming but must not go near the water. He has no objection to our soldiers taking Cuba if they will only not go near the enemy.

Governor Pingree, of Michigan, has presented each volunteer with a pair of tan shoes. Now let Scofield send each of the Wisconsin boys a firkin of butter and Jerry Simpson fit out each Kansan with a pair of socks.

If Schley could only bribe the cable office at Cape Haytien to hold up Washington advices for a few days the war might be shortened by some weeks.

How can the administration ever forgive itself for not turning to Jacob Coxey in this hour of the Nation's peril?

What ails Pop Anson and John L. Sullivan that they have not joined Roosevelt's rough riders?

Lieutenant Carranza also wrote a letter.

CONGRATULATIONS TO DEWEY.

Forwarded to Him by the Spanish Admiral—Manila's Defences.

Manilia, May 27, via Hong Kong, May 31—A large number of despatches congratulating Admiral Dewey upon his victory miscarried and came into the possession of Admiral Montejo, the Spanish commander whom Dewey defeated.

The latter courteously transmitted them to the American Admiral.

The demonstrations against the British are becoming more marked. The Spaniards and their sympathizers show their hostility to the British by insulting the portraits of Queen Victoria whenever they see one displayed.

It is stated that there is serious sickness aboard the American cruiser Boston.

Admiral Dewey promised the Spanish authorities that he would not bombard the city provided that they made no attempt to stregthen the defences.

To this condition Captain-General Augusti agreed, but it was seen on May 22nd, that such work was proceeding. Admiral Dewey fired a warning shot and the work ceased.

BRYAN'S REGIMENT ACCEPTED.

Alger Won Over by Gov. Holcomb. Another Regiment for Bryan.

Lincoln, Neb., May 31—Gov. Holcomb's pertinacity in insisting that the two Nebraska regiments now in service remain at eighty-four men has won over Secretary Alger, who sent him a despatch this evening authorizing him to raise a regiment of infantry under the second call. This was in compliance with the request of Gov. Holcomb that instead of sending the 660 men to fill the companies of the two regiments already in service, he be permitted to send a regiment which is being recruited. W. J. Bryan will be commanding officer. The Third Regiment, which will be sent is practically recruited. It is very likely that the twelve companies will be mobilized at some convenient point in the State within a month.

Russell Must Back Down.

Washington, June 1—Governor Russell will have to crawfish or else North Carolina will be unrepresented in the second call for troops.

His flat refusal to fill up from the second call the companies mustered in under the first call to the maximum of 106 men, leaves no alternative, but that he or the war department must back down. Secretary Alger had his attention called to Governor Russell's official communication on the subject, and he said that he could not change the established rule to suit the convenience of any one state.

The matter rests in this position.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

So Tired! So Tired!
Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any natural sleep, I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought ½ dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

LINCOLN AND HIS CABINET.

The Unexpected Discovery He Made About Their Appointments.

Mr. F. (a prominent historical writer) went to President Lincoln to get an appointment, and being asked of what denomination he was answered that he was a Presbyterian. "Well," said President Lincoln, "I will have to look at my book to see." He further said: "I am not sure but the Presbyterians are full. I have to do this."

Mr. Lincoln then proceeded: "Bishop Simpson was here the other day complaining of my cabinet's giving all the appointments to Episcopalians. I did not know anything about my cabinet. I thought Blair a good old Presbyterian name, and as for Seward, I didn't know until I went to church with him that he was an Episcopalian."

President Lincoln had said to Bishop Simpson: "You wait here. We are to have a cabinet meeting here directly, and I will see to it," and when the cabinet came he said, "Here is Bishop Simpson making a complaint of our giving all the appointments to the Episcopalians."

Said Seward: "That is not true of my department. I never give an appointment to any man because of his denomination, nor even know what he is."

Said, Bishop Simpson: "There was Dr. McClintock, appointed to go to Paris, a good Methodist, and Bishop Hughes was put in his place. I suppose you didn't know, sir, who Bishop Hughes was?" "Oh, I had forgotten about him."

"Well," said Blair, "you've got him there, bishop, but there are not two in my department that are Episcopalians." "Sir," said the bishop, "there are not two that are not." "Why," said Blair, "that is not true, and you may come tomorrow morning and look for yourself."

"I will be there at such a time," and he was there. As he went in Blair said, "Ah, bishop, you got Seward splendidly yesterday." Bishop Simpson said, "I do not come to hear about him, but about your department."

"I haven't time to see about that." "Sir, it is of more importance than you know. Yesterday you said there were not two who were Episcopalians, and I said there were not two that were not Episcopalians," and so he forced him to look at it, and he found that the bishop was correct, and that there were not two that were not Episcopalians.

All this Mr. Lincoln said to Mr. F., who communicated it to one of the best known citizens of this country, a man of unimpeachable veracity and equal accuracy, who communicated it to us.—Christian Advocate.

"A Cool Un."

"He's a cool un," is the way the soldiers in a certain English regiment describe one of their officers, a young man whose self possession in a time of danger saved his men from defeat and probably from death. The circumstance which gave this officer his reputation is related by Rudyard Kipling in The Westminster Magazine. He writes:

A very young officer, who had gone almost straight from school to the army and thence to India, was leading his company through a rocky pass on returning from a scouting expedition. They were beset by the enemy, who fired at them from behind the rocks, and the men were growing very unsteady. Those in the rear began to be impatient and shouted to the men in front: "Hurry up. What are you waiting for there?"

And he struck a match and lit it. There was a roar of laughter, and a soldier called out, "Well, since you're so pressin, I think I'll have a pipe myself." And he, too, struck a match and began to smoke. This bit of fun steadied the men, and they came through in good order.

The Dentist's Opportunity.

"I was particularly busy on last Tuesday," said the dentist. "My office was crowded all day, and one of the last patients to be attended to was a big, fat, middle aged German woman. She had been waiting for nearly three hours, but at last it was her turn, and she moved up to the chair with all the airy grace of a steam roller. Apparently the crowd in the office had impressed her deeply, for the first thing she said was:

"'Doctor, you vas doing a goot beesness.'

"'Yes,' I said, 'I keep pretty busy.'

"'My, but you must be maiging a big lot of money! Say, doctor, vas you a single man?'

"This was getting rather interesting, but the question was fired point blank at short range, and I felt that I had to answer, so I admitted that such was the case. By this time she had hoisted herself into the chair, and she gave me a look that—well, you remember the picture entitled 'The Amorous Hippopotamus?'

"'Say, doctor,' she said, 'und I vas a single voman.'"—New York Sun.

After the Concert.

Mr. Wellwood—How did you like Mme. Mebley?

Miss Highrocks—She was wretched.

Mr. Wellwood—I'm astonished to hear you say that. I thought she was in fine voice.

Miss Highrocks—Oh, her voice may have been all right, but I'm sure the gown she wore never could have been made in Paris.—Cleveland Leader.

The abandonment of the post office at Kaskaskia, Ill., for want of patronage calls to mind the fact that this is the oldest town in the state, having been founded by La Salle in 1682—the same year in which Penn founded Philadelphia. It has remained distinctively French to this day, and the modern movement seems to have avoided it.

John Nicholas Brown, who gave $200,000 for a public library building in the city of Providence, R. The library, when completed, will be the handsomest structure in the state.

Getting Ahead of Teddy.

Tampa, Fla., May 30—Four hundred of the Arizona cowboys arrived last night and went into camp. They had a big inscription on their car, reading "Arizona Terrors, the Real Thing. Teddy is Not in it." They were a wild lot. As they passed through they whooped and shouted, making a great demonstration.

A Sample of Spanish Lying.

The Balloon Train.

New York, June 1—Maj. J. E. Maxfield, of the Signal Corps, who has been assigned to command the balloon train which is being prepared at Tampa for use in connection with the work of the army in Cuba, has gone to Tampa. Since he succeeded Col. Allen as the head of the Signal Corps on Governor's Island, he has had general charge of the censorship of despatches in this city, but this work has been turned over to Lieutenant G. O. Spier, Third Artillery, his successor, who has been sent to this city from the artillery school at Fort Monroe.

Maj. Maxfield had experience with balloons at Fort Logan, in Kansas, and afterward in Chicago, and is regarded as an expert. He will have as his chief assistants Capt. Glassford and Sergt. Baldwin. There are two at Governor's Island.

gives good blood. It is a nerve strengthener and restorer, the efficacy of which cannot be over-estimated; when it is learned that its absolute freedom from poisonous drugs or opiates, makes it safe for use in the hands of sick or inexperienced persons, there is an increased appreciation of it. JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is a specific for impoverished or impotent nerves; it feeds the nervous system to high health, provides for physical and brain endurance, cheerfulness, happiness and energy.
Our thirty-six page illustrated book contains some interesting pages on Nerve Exhaustion. It is free for the asking. Quart bottle, $1.00.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Geo. Crawford went to Burlington today.

Col. W. H. Osborn went to Winston this morning.

Eatables of various kinds are advertised today by Vuncanon & Co.

Read Wharton & McAlister's ad today in reference to yesterday's auction sale.

Hudson makes a change in the bill of fare at his place today and asks your attention to the same.

Mr. A. M. Scales offers a vacant lot on East Washington street for sale. See ad in this paper.

The Greensboro orchestra went to Danville today at noon. They play for the Danville german club tonight.

Mrs. L. Woodruff returned yesterday from a stay of some months in New York and is again at the Benbow.

Mrs. A. A. Hinkle and children left this morning for Lexington where they will spend two or three weeks visiting relatives.

Mrs. G. M. Goolsby and daughter, Miss Mary, left this morning for Asheville where they will spend the summer. Mr. Goolsby remains.

Mrs. E. W. Ayers and daughter, Miss Nerona, of Washington, returned home this morning after an extended visit to Mrs. W. L. Grissom.

Six men having tied the four feet of a mule spent all the morning trying to put shoes on 'em. At noon they had shod one foot and the mule was in possession of the shop.

Boys now is the time for you to supply yourselves with summer underwear. See the inducements offered in the new advertisement of Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud in their space today.

We are glad to know that Captain Will Dodson's little son, who has has been very ill for some weeks, is improving. Capt. Dodson has been at home for several days attending at the little fellow's bedside.

More Trouble Brewing.

The tandem episode, will not, in all probability, end the business of putting fines on those who ride wheels after nightfall without searchlights on them. The tandem was out again last night, every seat was occupied and each rider carried in his hand a lantern burning at its full capacity. Can't do anything with them for that.

The trouble is coming though. Last night a number of riders were out without oil in their lamps, or without lamps, or without matches to light their lamps, and there was a policeman sitting concealed in a convenient shady spot, with pencil and note book jotting down the names of those who were out without the necessary headlight. We are told that he did not discriminate: but that with a cruel hand he wrote the names of some of our fair young ladies.

They meant no harm, we are sure, and as the electric light was not burning they probably thought cyclists were not required to carry lights.

Why should they?

An Opening Here.

In the last few months the Telegram has many suggestions along varied lines for the improvement and advancement of Greensboro. There are yet many more which have not been discussed, but which might, with profit, be considered by thinking people.

One thing we have in mind just now is an agency established, and maintained for the express purpose of buying, selling, and handling improved city property.

We have real estate men and others who make a side issue of handling property; but we throw out the suggestion that the community needs an agency established solely for this purpose.

Get the Right Census.

The Telegram is requested by Supt. Mebane to state for the benefit of school supervisors that in making out reports the census of December, 1897, not the census of May, 1898, is to be used in making out reports. The reports must be sent in before July the first. Negligence in this matter will be cause for removal according to Supt. Mebane.

New Gas Engine.

A new sixteen horse power gas engine for Clymer's machine shop has arrived and was today placed in the new building now nearing completion on Lewis street. Mr. Clymer is a first class practical machinist and will equip his place with improved machiner, so that the finest high grade work may be expected.

ANOTHER MERCANTILE DEAL.

Hinkle Bros. Buy Mrs. Ward's Millinery Store.

Yesterday afternoon a deal which has been in contemplation for several days was consummated in which the millinery store of Mrs. Etta Ward on South Elm street was purchased by Hinkle Brothers, general merchants, on West Market street.

Today account of stock is being taken and when it is complete Messrs. Hinkle Bros will move their stock from West Market to the store next to Bank of Guilford, now occupied by Mrs. Ward.

Mr. Ward has not yet decided what business he will engage in. He says his family will go to Wilmington for awhile. The Telegram hopes they will remain citizens of Greensboro. Mrs. Ward has done a nice millinery business this spring and has made many friends in the city who will regret to see her leave.

We bespeak for Hinkle Bros, who are most excellent gentlemen, increased patronage. Watch the Telegram for their announcement which will appear in a few days.

Unexaggeration

Probably there is no temptation so illusory, so insistent and so perilous that can beset a business house, as the seeming advantage to be derived from exaggeration.

Extravagance of statement seems to be palatable. It is entertaining; it flatters, it captivates, but it is self-deceiving.

The quickest and most certain way in which we can point out its danger is to call your attention to the fact that exaggeration once begun, knows no limit. Where is it going to stop? Today the exaggerator must tell a bigger, stronger story than yesterday; tomorrow, a bigger stronger one than today, and so it goes on.

Beside being untrue, and invalid, and conveying a wrong impression, it is weak, cowardly and mean to exaggerate; while its being utterly unnecessary and thoroughly disreputable, goes without saying.

Nearly everyday we go to the public with business assertions, grounded upon our character, watched by our reputation. It is absolutely impossible for one of those assertions to contain a particle of exaggeration. They have merchandise quality to vouch for them, and our quality to hold them to their pledges. Hence, if you have any occasion, at any time, to illustrate an argument that the principle and policy of sterling truth make the most successful business, you can point to us and point to our doings and sayings as proof.

We have been rushed the entire week with eager buyers. The same
